

Citizen Input Meeting on City of Atlanta Services

ATLANTA RESIDENTS ARE INVITED TO PROVIDE
INPUT ON THEIR LEVEL OF SATISFACTION WITH SELECTED
CITY SERVICES DURING MARCH 24TH MEETING AS PART OF THE ATLANTA CITY COUNCIL'S 2013 CITY BUDGET REVIEW PROCESS.

Saturday, March 24, 2012
1pm - 4 pm

Piedmont Room of the Boisfeuillet Jones Atlanta Civic Center
395 Piedmont Avenue, N.E.
Atlanta GA

Attendees will be questioned on various services including their satisfaction with an array of city departments in performing their duties from repairing potholes and sidewalk to response times for public safety calls. Attendees will also have the opportunity to provide feedback on what level of service is needed to reach their satisfaction.

"This survey is part of our new way of including residents and stakeholders in the 2013 city budget review process," said Finance Committee Chairwoman Felicia Moore. "It's imperative that we know what the departments' funding needs are in order to provide their quality services that our residents expect."

The survey will also be available on-line through Survey Monkey. Citizens will be provided a link through email and on the City's website. The data will be compiled and a report will be generated for review and analysis.

SELECTED DEPARTMENT HEADS WILL BE ON HAND TO PRESENT AN OVERVIEW OF THEIRS DEPT'S BUDGETS AND SERVICES
